In consideration of value received, including any extensions of credit to Customer by the Tiller Corporation or any of its above divisions or subsidiaries (the Company), the undersigned jointly and severally guarantee to the Company, its successors and assigns, prompt performance of all obligations of Customer to the Company. This includes, without limitation, the payment of all account debts now due to the Company, or which may become due to the Company in the future, together with interest at the highest rate allowed by law and all costs of collection and enforcement of this guaranty, including attorneys' fees.

This is a continuing guaranty binding the undersigned and their heirs, successors, and legal representatives. It shall continue in force until written notice of revocation is actually received by the Company. No revocation of this guaranty shall affect any obligations of the Guarantors or Customer then existing, however.

The undersigned specifically waive notice of Customer's purchases, extensions of credit by the Company, any change in the form of Customer's obligations as from open account to notes or otherwise, renewals or extensions of time for payment, any changes in collateral or security for payment, notice of release of any security of the release of any other guarantor, acceptance of this guaranty, any adverse change in the financial condition of Customer which may increase the Guarantors' risk; and Guarantors waive notice of default by the Customer, presentment, demand, protest, and any other notice or formality which may lawfully be waived.

Guarantors agree that the Company is specifically not obligated to sue or to exhaust its remedies against the Customer or any collateral or any other guarantor as a condition precedent to the undersigned obligation under this guaranty.
